Says Deputies Are Merely Armed Marauders.

CHARACTERISTIC ORDERS TO BROOKS.

COMMISSIONER BOYNTON SEEKS LEGAL ADVICE.

Resistance to the Law-A Denial That the Deputies Are a Disorderly Body-Denials Made By Brook and Soynton and Colorado's Erat-Governor Countermands His Orders-Troubles Far From Set-

Denver, Colo., June 10.-Governor Walte, early this morning, in response to a telegram from General Brooks, com-manding the militia at Cripple Creek, informing him that the deputies were advancing on Bull Hill, ordered the follow-ing telegram sent:
"General Brooks-If, as you say, Sheriff Bowers admits that the deputies refuse to obey his orders and are acting in defiance thereof, they are not a lawfu body: are only armed marauders, and must treat them as such. Order them to lay down their arm

"Order them to lay down their arms and disperse. If they refuse to obey, and you have not force enough to suppress this insurrection, notify me and I will call out enough unorganized militia to enforce the order."

Commissioner Boynton, in command of the deputies, was shown the order from the governor and immediately wired his attorney, Hon. C. S. Thomas, of this sity, for advice, Mr. Thomas sent the following reply:

sity, for advace. Mr. Thomas sent the following reply:

"Mr. Boynton-The sheriff of the county, engaged in enforcing order, subduling a attempting to subdue armed resistance to the law, or the authorities, or in overcoating those who defy the service of process, is discharging the obligations if his office and maintaining civil government. In doing this, he may call to his aid and deputize as many citizens as may be necessary, and no power, not even the federal government, has lawful authority to interfere with or disarm him."

Boynton denies that Sheriff Bowers has lost control of his men or that they are a disorderly hody.

STRONG-LUNGED STATESMEN oclock thit morning, a party of fifteen deputies, while approaching Bull Hill on their way from camp to this place, were fired upon from ambush by twenty miners. The deputies, being unprepared for an attack, retreated without returning the fire. General Brooks called out amough militia to surround the miners, and arrested them. No one was injured. Sheriff Bower denies that he has lost control of the deputies, and General Brooks denies having made any such statement. It was this false report that caused Governor Waite to order General Brooks to disarm the deputies.

General Brooks says his force may not be large enough to protect the mining property about here. Should this prove to be the case, he will press into service the deputies now on the ground.

Frank Wolfe, financial secretary of the Mineral Brooks will take charge of an heavy of the Mineral Brooks will take charge of all persons arrested by the leputies Saturday, has been released as he was under parole of General Brooks when arrested.

General Brooks will take charge of all persons arrested by the sheriff, and escort them to Colorado Springs, where they will be turned over to the sheriff.

The cost of this strike to El Paso county has already reached 180,000 and day.
